Home Learning

Home Learning is set every fortnight and the activities are added to the diary on Class Dojo too. Feel free to adapt these activities for your child.

If you need any help with the activity or resources please ask.

Class Dojo

Class Dojo is a means of communication between home and school. We endeavor to check this regularly. Please add any achievements that your child has or days out that you think they would like to share with us to your child's portfolio so that we can share this with them.
